

Name: Lloyd M. Jenkins	Office: Cheltenham
Contact Tel: 07972 319664	Email: PDSCheltenham@legalaid.gsi.gov.uk
Position: Duty Solicitor/Solicitor Advocate
Lloyd is one of our 'Founding Fathers' having joined the PDS in Swansea as a Duty Solicitor when the office opened in May 2001. In 2003 Lloyd was invited to help launch an office in Pontypridd. This was a new and exciting challenge which saw Lloyd jump at the opportunity. Whilst busy volunteering to help out at the Cheltenham office Lloyd was presented with a further opportunity. Following an offer of relocation, Lloyd promptly transferred to the Cheltenham office in 2004. Not one to hang about Lloyd quickly set out to qualify as a Solicitor Advocate and did so in February 2005. Over the last decade Lloyd has continued to develop as a robust and fearless defence advocate at the PDS. Lloyd conducts regular jury trials covering a wide range of offences from rape and sexual assaults to robbery and fraud offences. Lloyd has appeared before the Court of Appeal on many occasions, winning seven of his last nine appearances. In addition to his central role as a Solicitor Advocate, Lloyd continues to retain his status as a Duty Solicitor at the police station and the magistrates' court. Beyond the PDS, Lloyd has built up a valuable relationship with the Law Department at the University of Gloucestershire and continues to offer work experience and present guest lectures, career talks, advocacy workshops and mock trials. Lloyd was asked by the Head of Law to supervise the first ever Innocence Project at the University of Gloucestershire. Never one to shy away from a challenge, Lloyd naturally took on the task and submitted a case to the Criminal Cases Review Commission (CCRC) in 2012. Lloyd has also spent the last nine years as a freelance legal assessor at Central Law Training (CLT) and has been central to the assessment and examination of a generation of criminal lawyers. Lloyd is a conscientious and determined individual, with a natural desire to learn and achieve.	